Dear students,

We are pleased to invite you to a free webinar, trying to answer your questions regarding DevOps.

As it can be quite overwhelming to pick a technology when planning your first steps towards your career in IT, especially looking into DevOps., join our specialized webinar where Ana Jovanovska (DevOps tutor at Scalefocus Academy) and Krasimir Kostadinov (Director of Scalefocus Academy) will talk about the course and the career opportunities for DevOps engineers.

The agenda is as follows:

What is DevOps?

Why choose DevOps as a career path?

What is it like being a DevOps engineer in Scalefocus?
